branding

concept

Introducing a contemporary Italian coffee shop and gelato brand to the local Egyptian market. Presenting a brand name and concept with a creative, direct connotation of the number 200 in Italian, referring to the temperature of the perfect roasted coffee. Using a contemporary version of the sans serif font family, graphic elements illustrating the brand's products and a grey earthy pantone, this design direction highlights the brand's modern, playful yet subtly elegant persona and identity. Through creative branding, Duecento is the next cool, fresh, neat, and contemporary coffee brand.

The logo for 'Duecento' features a stylized, bold letter 'D' on the left. The 'D' is filled with black and has a white cutout in the center. The bottom of the 'D' is shaped like a suit jacket collar. To the right of the 'D' is the word 'uecento' in a bold, sans-serif font, followed by a trademark symbol (TM).
